Agreement Reached on Farm Credits Measure

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 2.—Senate and house conferees reached an understanding tonight on the farm credits bill.

Their report will be submitted the two houses tomorrow. Several changes were made in the bill as passed by the house. Under the agreement the war finance corporation would be authorized to function until March 1924. Privately financed agricultural credit corporations created by the measure would be permitted to issue debentures and would be under supervision of the comptroller of the currency instead of the farm loan board. The conferees also agreed on the provision increasing the maximum of farm land loans to $5,000 with a stipulation that preference should be given to loans of $10,000 or under.

Names of the two systems of making to be set up were changed. The government financed institutions to be known as the federal intermediate credit banks and the privately financed organizations as "national agricultural credit corporations."

Agreement also was reached at a limitation should not be based on interest rates of the national agricultural credit corporations it being decided that officials charged with the administration of the new system could take care of that problem.

The bill provided for two new members of the federal farm loan board and a deputy comptroller of the currency to absorb the added supervisory work.

EXPLOSION ROCKS MINE, INJURING AND KILLING MANY

Seventy-Five at Work in Mine When Blast Occurs

(By The Associated Press)
BLUEFIELD, W. Va., March 2.—Bodies of six miners had been recovered late tonight from the mine of the Weyanoke Coal and Coke company at Arista, which early today was shaken by a heavy explosion. Hope for rescuing alive five other miners of the thirty-eight entombed was abandoned when rescue workers said they were unable to reach the section of the mine where the men were at work.

Afterdamp probably would prove fatal to the five still entombed, mine officials said.

Seventy-five men were at work when the mine was rocked by the blast, 3,200 feet from the main opening. Many of them in other sections were not caught by the crumbling of the walls. Of the thirty-eight entombed, 27, only slightly injured were rescued.

Force is terrific.

The explosion tore thru the surface, scattering timbers and huge boulders for several hundred feet. Tongues of flames shot thru these openings.

An overcharge of dynamite used in blasting was the cause of the disaster, mine officials said. Arista scene of the explosion is a small mining town in Mercer county in the extreme southern section of West Virginia and is practically isolated by mountainous country.

For hours after the explosion it was impossible to communicate by telephone with outside points.

FORD COMPANY IS ACQUIRING POWER RIGHTS

Granted Permit to Develop Power on River at St. Paul

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 2.—The Ford Motor company was granted a preliminary permit today by the federal power commission to develop power at the high dam, erected across the Mississippi river between St. Paul and Minneapolis by the government as an aid to navigation. For several months Henry Ford met with stiff opposition to his project which contemplates organization of a large manufacturing plant at St. Paul, but at a three hour hearing before the committee today his committee divided into one, the Northern States Power company. Both St. Paul and Minneapolis, which had desired to develop power for municipal utilities abdicated in favor of the Ford company. Under the grant the Ford company is given four months to complete and file with the commission its plans for the project, and also its plan for disposal of surplus power.

Government Fee.

The company will be required to pay a reasonable price to the government.

The grant of the preliminary permit was interpreted for Ford representatives as being equivalent to a permanent lease.

During the coming four months however, it is understood, Minneapolis will take steps to amend its charter to allow the municipality to develop power and then will again petition the commission for permission to do so.

Divergent Claims.

In expressing approval of the Ford plan, representatives of the twin cities claimed the right to use any surplus power developed by the company. President Coffman of the University of Minnesota also claimed power reservations for that institution.

Counsel for the Northern States Power company demanded that the grantee be directed to turn over to it the surplus power. The Ford company the commission was told will erect a plant on a 127 acre tract already purchased for the assembly of cars and for the manufacture of parts and other articles.

SCREEN COMEDIAN DISCLAIMS INTENT GIVEN HIS REMARK

Was Only Trying to Avoid Answering Direct Question

(By The Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, March 2.—Pola Negri, and Charlie Chaplin, comedian, were still "made up" tonight, so much so in fact, that Charlie invited her to a "love feast" at his home and she accepted. That was the first result tonight of what Pola termed their "little lover's spat" of last night.

Her emotional reaction to Charlie's alleged statement that he was "too poor" to marry her, "just now" resulted in a six-hour break in their engagement and the motion picture world waited until they had effected a reconciliation. The reconciliation was effected early this morning.

Charlie didn't say it. He did not say the words credited to him and he told newspapermen that if he did say them and he did not mean them he did not mean them, he must have said them in a spirit of humor, to avoid making a definite answer as to the exact date of the nuptials.

It was announced tonight that the two stars had agreed not to marry until each had concluded his motion picture upon which they are engaged. This would deter the wedding until "early summer" at least, it was said.

Pola's invocation of the tragic music yesterday left her indisposed today. She remained in bed in order to be ready for the "love feast" to which she also was invited. A few close friends, believed to be Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford.

As for Charlie he worked hard on a picture but tore himself from his oversize shoes and baggy trousers in time to rush home to give the dinner and its preparations his attention.

Kansas City, Mo., March 2.—James Martin tonight was convicted of complicity in the $97,000 robbery of messengers of the Drivers National Bank here last December and was sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary. The senate foreign relations committee reaffirmed its decision not to act on the administration proposal for American membership in the international court of justice after receiving further information from the President and Secretary Hughes.

Hawaii sugar cane harvest during the year ended last September 30 was the largest in high years according to an estimate today by the department of agriculture. Production was placed at 1,184,000,000 pounds or 13 per cent more than for the previous year.

Pronounced activity in American business with expanding production and stiffening prices for many products is now being noted, according to summarized surveys of the commerce department issued today while similar conditions exist in South American republics of Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Peru.

Within the United States such widely varied tests as the sales of chain stores the booking of orders for steel castings and the production of copper, brick and enamel were all said to indicate a high volume of trade proceeding with the end of January recording period.

Partial agreement was reached today by senate and house conferees on the $156,700,000 deficiency appropriation bill. There was technical disagreement on the senate amendment appropriating $400,000 additional for the federal coal commission which was to be submitted to the house for a vote.

PASSAGE OF BILL ENLARGES POWERS OF COMMISSION

Measure Carried Additional Appropria- tion of $400,000

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 2.—The administration bill enlarging powers of the federal coal commission was passed today by the house 209 to 76. An amendment was attached under which an additional appropriation of $400,000 would be authorized.

The deficiency appropriation bill, now in conference also carries the $400,000 item which was inserted by the senate but has not been agreed to by the house. Under the measure, passed today the commission would be given power to send questionnaires to the coal industry and to compel attendance of witnesses.

With all the regular appropriation bills completed the two major unfinished measures the farm credits legislation and the $156,700,000 deficiency appropriation bill were advanced today far beyond the danger line, leaders said. The farm credits bill in conference brought to the point of completion as the deficiency measure.

The farm bloc "filled milk" bill was brought into harbor finally and sent to President Harding.

The administration proposal for American representation on the world court of the league of nations however, became finally wrecked today for this session despite an eleven hour effort by President Harding and Secretary Hughes. They sent new letters to the senate foreign relations committee urging the court plan but it was left on the legislative shoals when Republicans on the senate committee reaffirmed their decision that action at this session was impossible.

The house passed and sent to the senate the Sweet bill modifying the war risk law in behalf of war veterans while the senate ordered a sweeping investigation of the veterans bureau.

A move for a sugar investigation also was made in the senate which spent most of today on the government employees salary reclassification bill.

Minor bills and completion of conference reports are on tomorrow's program.

An extended executive session of the senate late today hundreds of nominations were confirmed.

Three of the four witnesses who testified the defendant had appeared to them irrational. The fourth, Detective Stephen M. Dumphy said he thought her sane. These witnesses were called after Mrs. Saludes, her execution over, had left the stand swooning. After they had been heard the case was adjourned until Monday.

President Harding Reviews His Work

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 2.—Two years ago today President Harding said good bye to his neighbors in Marion and started for Washington. Today, at the half way point of his administration his one regret is that he never has found opportunity to give personal attention to many of the administrative details which have become a part of the duties of his office. He feels congress constantly is making the responsibilities of the presidency heavier, so that no one man can hope to keep abreast of them.

Mr. Harding declined today to make any further comment on the accomplishments and troubles of his first two years in office. He indicates that with the crush of business incident to the close of congress he was not disposed to take up time in pointing with pride or viewing with alarm. He met his cabinet for a scant twenty minutes in its last session before he goes to Florida for a vacation. He signed a number of bills and resolutions, dumped another batch of nominations into the senate hopper and rearranged accumulated papers on his desk in preparation for another big day tomorrow.

Now the real job for the farmers is to show that they can stay organized and grow in numbers. A country wide membership of a million and a quarter in farm organizations is a pretty good start.

After all, perhaps this new story about Pola Negri and Charlie Chaplin is just a bit of press agent stuff. You must remember that neither had been in the headlines for at least two or three weeks.

Senator Reed of Missouri is hard to please. He criticizes France for going into the Ruhr in order to force Germany to pay reparations for the damage done during the war and then he proposes that the United States seize British Islands in the West Indies in order to force full payment of the British debt. He recommends action between friends that he criticizes when resorted to by former enemies.

The death of George C. Guthrie marked the passing of a man prominent in the mercantile life of Jacksonville. Mr. Guthrie was quiet and unostentatious to a marked degree. However, this retiring spirit did not keep him from making a deep impression upon those with whom he came in contact. He was a life well spent and many there are who will continue to remember him in years to come as a fine example—a man in whom both gentleness and firmness were combined, in rare degree.

A WARNING

Citizens driving their cars along West College avenue are becoming nervous in their efforts to dodge the number of children who are using the street as a roller skating rink. Although the pavement may afford excellent skating the diversion is dangerous. Citizens should not be held responsible for accidents, as cars and not roller skates have the right of way on a city pavement. If older young people want to use the pavement as a route by which to skate from place to place and are willing to take the risk, there is probably no law to stop them. However, children should be kept off the pavement, as they are likely to be careless and, the driver of a car may be ever so careful, accidents of a serious nature are liable to occur.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

OUT OF FASHION

By Berton Braley

THE women don't faint any more,
They seldom go flop on the floor,
They're tougher, more agile
Than all of those fragile
And delicate damsels whom Thackeray told about—
Sighing and weeping in anguish complete;
Girls of today, whom the dowagers scold about,
Smile at their troubles—and stay on their feet!

THE women don't faint any more,
A fact which I cannot deplore,
Their waists aren't constricted
And they're not afflicted
With vapors and other sue hifemintine maladies,
Due to tight lacing and lack of good air.
Nowadays any young lady who's pallid is Told to eat beefsteak and other such fare.

THE women don't faint any more,
It wouldn't get by as of yore,
The fainting and sighing
Would prove very trying
And presently lead to some nerve sanitarium,
For fainting went out when ragtime began,
And nowadays women, when luck seems to hurry 'em,

Board of Senior Organization in County Discusses Matter at Meeting Friday Night—Miss Carter Will Take up Work of Interesting Young People.

The regular monthly meeting of the Morgan county chapter of the American Red Cross was held Friday evening at the public library. The most important item of business was the initiation of plans for the organization of a Junior Red Cross chapter in the county. Miss Grace Carter was appointed chairman of this work, and a definite campaign will soon be launched for such an organization. It is believed that the young people of the city and county could be enlisted in the movement with but little difficulty.

The preparatory meeting for the transaction of the monthly business was held by the advisory committee Thursday night. The board of directors acted upon a number of matters last night, and the routine business of the month was considered. There was a good attendance. The report of the secretary was read and approved. The claims of a number of ex-service men have been adjusted during the month thru the work of the Red Cross, and the veterans and their families have been otherwise aided.

ROTARIANS TOLD FARM BUREAU FACTS

Addresses Made at Friday Luncheon By G. B. Kendall and E. M. Higgins—Committees Plan for Club Representation at Coming Meets.

At the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club Friday at the Pacific hotel addresses were made by George B. Kendall, county agent, and E. M. Higgins of LaSalle county, associated with Illinois Agricultural association, relative to farming problems.

At the business session Dr. H. A. Chapin made a statement with reference to the district convention which will be held at Danville March 20 and 21, and Dr. A. H. Dolbeer presented additional facts about the international meeting in St. Louis in June.

Danville is somewhat difficult to reach from Jacksonville but the indications point to a good sized delegation for the district meet. The committee arranging for the trip includes Dr. Chapin, A. R. Taylor and Dr. Hopper.

Mr. Kendall in his address explained some of the difficulties that have been presented to farm bureau organizations in the last two or three years, and then gave some idea of the program of work which has been attempted.

Mr. Kendall said that notwithstanding discouragements there have been many incidents of a pleasant kind in which the members have testified to their appreciation of the work which has been done in building up agricultural interests.

Mr. Higgins, who is to spend some time in Morgan county, later directing a general campaign for members of the county and state organizations, told some interesting facts about the growth of farm organization work. Today there are one and a quarter million members and Mr. Higgins said that the farmers have often been charged with inability to work together. He, however, expressed the belief that that day has gone and mentioned the fact that there are farm bureau organizations in 24 counties in Illinois.

Mr. Higgins is a real dirt farmer and has been prominently identified with the business and agricultural interests of his county for a number of years past.

A BETTER JACKSONVILLE

Citizens and friends of Jacksonville may well be proud over the encouraging prospects of a still better Jacksonville. "Every thing for the Good of Jacksonville" is the motto not only inscribed on the walls of the council chamber but the hearts and minds of most citizens.

Four years have not faded these ideals, and with renewed interest we are approaching the problems of our city. Many unnamed persons have been responsible for past achievements. These same persons commonly known as "the people" can be counted on to make the city even better than it is.

Two kinds of betterment are possible. These two ways of improving a town are as old as towns. One says: "Let's have better pavements, better street lights, better houses, better sewers, better parks, better laws and better public buildings."

Besides this way, and more important still is the one which says: "Persons are more important than the clothes he wears or the auto he drives. Life's chief problems center about the character of the men, women and children of a community."

Business emphasizes the first: Religion the second. There can never be a Golden Age, nor can there be a practice of the Golden Rule among men who have leaden or leather hearts. The condition of a man's character is the most important thing about him. The relation of the human soul to God is the most important fact about my life. After all, the religious and moral life of the young and old people of Jacksonville is of vital concern to any one who speaks intelligently about a "Better Jacksonville."

The not authorized to speak for any other religious group than that represented in the Ministerial association is something more than multiplying words when I say that this is a very fitting season of the year to unite in prayer and supplication of Almighty God.

The proposed union meeting of at least ten churches, commencing Monday, March 12 should be an occasion of vital concern to the citizens of Jacksonville.

Let us lay aside our regular programs of play and recreation, of business, if need be, and let us concentrate on "First Things."

Some of us have walked on Roman rock roads which were made before Christ walked the hills of Galilee. It is common knowledge today that citizens may boost for and build rock roads while their moral lives decay as was true of Romans.

What are asphalt streets, electric lights and business booms, if the moral muscle of children and men is flabby. It was of an outwardly prosperous, beautiful and powerful empire that the words "Mene, mene, Tekel, Upharain" were written.

For the good of our beloved city and country, for a "Better Jacksonville" Let's get on our community knees before God.

CLEANING STREETS

Perry White, commissioner of streets, has a force of men busy with the spring pavement cleaning. As there has been practically no rain for months past, there is not as much earth on the pavements as is generally true.

The crew of men has made good progress during the past week and the pavements are consequently in much more sanitary condition.

Skin Ablaze with Eczema
Instant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that is worse than eczema, and that is more red, itchy, and it is one of the greatest blood poisons to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to be cured.

First. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities build up. We also know that night follows day. Both are facts. But have you, when you suffer, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never heard about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digesting torture and its soul-tearing, unbearable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll back. Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1892! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cleansers, blood-purifiers and body-builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes: "My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends that a good medicine is S. S. S. I cannot say too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build blood-cells, it cures rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

"The Bat" by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood the most successful dramatic play by all odds produced in the past generation, will be presented at the Grand theatre on Tuesday night, March 6, by Wagenhals and Kemper. Those who are at all interested in the affairs of the theatre are familiar with the remarkable record made by "The Bat."

For over two years, "The Bat" played to capacity audiences in New York. For more than a year another company presented "The Bat" in Chicago where it broke every existing record for the length of a run and smashed all box office records for receipts. The play stands absolutely in a class by itself in point of popularity.

Not a little of the success of "The Bat" is due directly to the sportsmanship of the theatrical critics and theatregoers who have seen it. The authors and managers unite, wherever, "The Bat" is presented, in requesting that no one disclose the secret of the play and so far as is known, no one has ever broken faith in that regard. The result is that there is still the same delightful surprise in store for theatregoers today as there was the first night "The Bat" was ever presented on any stage.

"The Bat" comes here backed by its remarkable record for popularity and the enormous success it has greeted it every place it has been seen. The production is exactly the same as that used by the New York and Chicago companies and the cast is a particularly strong one.

INDIANA GREAT STATE FOR STONE

Material for Elliott State Bank Listed in Best the State Produces.

Workmen who are to have part in the construction of the new Elliott State bank building have been in the city this week looking over the ground. The work of razing the buildings which are to be torn down in clearing the site will begin just as soon as the present tenants can move to their new quarters.

As mentioned before, the new bank home is to be in Bedford limestone. Some interesting facts with reference to this material were transmitted to the Elliott State Bank by the E. Ittenbach Co., of Indianapolis, which has the contract for the stone.

Indiana Limestone is a natural building stone that is found in both Lawrence and Monroe counties, Indiana. Records show that 80 per cent of all the building stone, including sandstone, granite and marble, used in the U. S., comes from Indiana. Over 24,000 carloads of this stone are quarried annually.

The process of preparation is interesting. The average quarry weighs between 10 and 15 tons. A block of this size is placed against a sag saw and is thus ripped into slabs. Later the slabs are placed on planers for machine work and material required for moldings is thus prepared.

After the material comes from the planers with its rough ends it is brought in contact with a great diamond circular saw. Such a saw with its rim made up of from 50 to 140 diamonds, each of 2 karat size, will cut thru 20 inches of stone in one minute's time.

The stone next moves for hand cutting by the use of pneumatic hammers, and after it has been submitted to a rubbing process of the removal of planer and other tool marks, the stone is ready for shipment.

There are three grades of Indiana limestone, classed as buff, gaged in the limestone industry buff stone is the very best produced and it is from this that the Elliott State bank building will be constructed. Indiana limestone is greatly desired for building purposes because while it has all needed qualities of endurance, it is still soft enough to make its economical fabrication possible.

Some of the well known buildings constructed from Indiana limestone are Federal Reserve Bank and the Illinois Merchants' bank in Chicago, the Treasury building in Washington, the Federal Reserve bank in New York and the Soldiers and Sailors monument in Indianapolis.

The Ittenbach Co., in giving a description of Indiana stone, found pleasure in the statement that the company has been engaged in the limestone industry continuously for 67 years.

REMAINS BROUGHT FROM CHICAGO

White Hall, March 2.—The remains of Harold Wilmington arrived from Chicago shortly after midnight this morning, and were taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wilmington, near Patterson. He was a native of Patterson, graduating from the Patterson high school under Miss Edith Hyatt of White Hall three years ago, and then went to Chicago, where at the time he was taken ill with pneumonia he had completed a successful examination for an appointment in the railway mail service.

He was in Lakeside hospital more than a month, dying at 2:30 A. M. Thursday. He would have been 22 years of age next May. He became active in Baptist circles in his neighborhood in Chicago, and the attentions during his illness were matters of note. He was a member of the Patterson Baptist church, and was well known over this section of the county. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 P. M. Saturday, and the burial will be in Pine Tree cemetery.

HOME RUN KING
BATTLES WITH FLU

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 2. —"Dabe" Ruth, home run king, took a recess from his mountain climbing and golf today to battle with the "flu" which developed overnight and sent his temperature at one time to 104.

Tonight, his physician reported him back to normal, free of fever most of the day and with every indication that he would be in shape to leave Monday with the other Yankees here to join the team in New Orleans.

Ruth had suffered several days with a cold but undertook to "beat it off." During the night a chill and high temperature developed.

His physical condition with the aid of a physician, however, quickly gained the upper hand.

JACKSONVILLE STEPS
NEARER THE TITLE
IN FRIDAY'S GAMES

Defeated White Hall and Waverly, Two of the Strongest Teams in the Tournament —Is Not Out of Woods Yet—Plays Chandlerville This Morning—Other Games

Tournament Games Today

10 o'clock—Mt. Sterling vs. Murrayville.
11 o'clock—Jacksonville vs. Chandlerville.
Championship Game—8 o'clock
Winners of Above Two Games

By defeating White Hall and Waverly Friday Jacksonville high made a big stride toward another district championship. Both games were hard fought, especially the Waverly game which went overtime.

Contrary to the expectations of many fans White Hall did not prove a formidable opponent. She had defeated Jacksonville twice this season. However, the last defeat on the White Hall floor was only by a one point margin and showed that the local tossers were rounding to form while White Hall was standing still or, if anything, slipping back a little.

In the game Friday morning Jacksonville stopped White Hall dead. In the first half she did not score a field basket, three free throws being the total of her scoring. In the second half she got five field baskets and three more on free throws.

The game with Waverly was a different proposition. Waverly jumped into the lead and held it at the half by a score of 8 to 4. In the second half Jacksonville got to going and tied the score and 12 all. Then the teams battled on even terms until the final whistle, first one and then the other taking the lead. Waverly had a chance to win the game without the overtime period when a technical foul was called on Hunter but the throw was missed, leaving the count knotted as the half closed. In the overtime period the locals scored two baskets and Waverly one.

The offensive work of Hunter, Deatherage, Putnam and Hunt was excellent while Hunt and Hopper did great work on defense. Ashbaugh, Bryan, Irie and Hughes did the offensive work for Waverly while Hughes worked on defense was again as good as has been seen on the local floor.

Murrayville Swamps Pearl
Murrayville swamped Pearl in the second battle of the day. The Murrayville team showed an excellent offensive game and the men were accurate in their basket shooting. Especially was this true of Wright and Wood. After the Murrayville got the game tied down she used a lot of substitutes but even they held Pearl forwards safely.

Griggsville-Winchester
One of the closest games of the day was between Griggsville and Winchester. In the first half Winchester took the lead by a small margin and held it. In the second half Burland got to going and tossed in three field baskets while McKinney and Syrcle also added one each.

Meredosia-Chambersburg
The upset of the afternoon was the defeat of Meredosia by Chambersburg. This was the first game on the card and most of the spectators favored Meredosia to win the game.

The teams played on fairly even terms, the score at the half time being 6 to 4 in favor of Chambersburg. In the second half Chambersburg got started and soon had a commanding lead which was held until the final whistle.

Walsh, Hyde and Yeakle did the scoring for Meredosia while E. Ham, Hobbs, K. Ham and Reathaford scored for Chambersburg.

Mt. Sterling-Virginia
One of the best games to watch during the day was the game between Mt. Sterling and Virginia. The teams proved to be evenly matched and it was anybody's game thruout. At the half Mt. Sterling led by an 8 to 5 score.

In the second half Virginia speeded up and finally tied the score which remained knotted at the final whistle. In the five minute overtime period Mt. Sterling tossed two field baskets while Virginia was unable to score.

Putnam and Buss did most of the scoring for Meredosia while Putnam proved to be one of the best forwards seen during the tournament. Davis, Sutherland, DeFrates and Flannigan did the scoring for Virginia.

Chandlerville-Franklin
Chandlerville proved her quality in the afternoon by defeating the strong Franklin team by a score of 14 to 13. The victory did not come until after one of the hardest battles of the day. Harper carried the burden of Chandlerville's offense. Baker did most of the scoring for Franklin.

Murrayville-Chambersburg
In the first game in the evening schedule, Murrayville eliminated the Chambersburg team by a score of 17 to 15.

These teams proved to be evenly matched and the score was close thruout. Murrayville's victory came thru more accurate basket shooting and superiority in passing. Murrayville's passing game was about the best we have seen during the tournament.

Mt. Sterling-Griggsville
Mt. Sterling defeated Griggsville in the second game of the evening. Contrary to expectations the game was not much of a contest as Mt. Sterling showed superiority thruout. Mt. Sterling took the lead after the first few minutes of play and at the half was leading by a score of 14 to 4.

Griggsville held Mt. Sterling down better in the second half but was unable to score many points herself. Burland and Kircher scored the Griggsville points while Putnam again gave a fine exhibition for Mt. Sterling.

Bluffs-Chandlerville
The last game of the evening was between Bluffs and Chandlerville. On form Bluffs was the favorite over Chandlerville.

The game was one of the fastest of the tournament and both teams worked at top speed. Chandlerville carried the fight to the Bluffs team from the jump and at the half had the lead by a score of 11 to 8.

In the second half the score was tied and untied several times. But Chandlerville played more consistently than did Bluffs and kept Hyler so well covered that he did not have much chance. Despite this, however, Hyler

Statement of Athletic Director at "Big Ten" Banquet

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 2.—More has been done in enforcing the eligibility rules in the "big ten" conference in the last year than in many years, George Huff, director of athletics of the University of Illinois asserted in an address tonight at the annual banquet of the "big ten" alumni of St. Louis.

The public has not heard of all the men who have been barred for violating athletic regulations he asserted.

Mr. Huff advocated a sentiment among alumni and students that will strongly censure the athlete who tries to carry water on both shoulders by playing on his university's team and on an outside team at the same time.

Spirit Evils Remedied.
The remedy for sport evils is to cure without abridging athletics, Commissioner John L. Griffith of the "big ten" conference asserted in an address here today before the city club. He stated plans were underway for the removal of alleged gambling professionalism and over commercialization.

He added that evils complained of in the sports system were no more inherent in sports than were the evils of business inherent in the commercial world.

AMERICAN GOLFERS
PLANNING ASSAULT
ON GREAT BRITAIN

Professionals Would Duplicate Triumphs of Previous Years

NEW YORK, March 2.—American professional golfers are planning another attack on Great Britain in the hope of duplicating their triumphs of the past two years.

Officials of the professional golfers association today said no attempts would be made to organize a team, but that several of the most prominent pro-stars are likely to go as individuals.

Gene Sarazen, American and professional titleholder and Walter Hagen, present British open king, are expected to lead the Yankee drive in the British open championship at Troon, Scotland, June 11 to 15.

Barnes May Join.
In addition there is a possibility that Jim Barnes, former American champion and John Black may join the party.

Jock Hutchinson who captured the British title in 1921, has declared he will be unable to go.

Sarazen has yet to iron out his arrangements with the Briar Cliff club, where on April 1 he is scheduled to take up his duties as professional. Club directors have been disinclined to grant him a leave so soon after he takes hold of his new post but it is believed an adjustment will be made.

Mrs. Wilcox was the leader of the devotional exercises, and a brief business session proceeded the formal program.

A brief history of missions in early day in Japan was given by Mrs. May Graves. This narrative began with the time when St. Francis Xavier, the Jesuit priest, introduced Christianity into Japan. Reference was made to the missions founded later by the friars of the Franciscan, Dominican and Augustinian orders. The difficulties which arose between these priests and the Buddhist and Shinto priests were described. The speaker also referred to the fact that for over two centuries Japan was practically closed to all nations except Holland. This period was prior to the entry of Commodore Perry into the harbor in 1853.

The others on the program described the mission schools which the society is maintaining at Yokohama and Tokio. The Kwasui Jo Gakko (Fountain of Living Water) school was described as one at which have occurred many terrible massacres. It was to this school that Miss Mary E. Melton of Centenary church in this city devoted a number of years of loving service.

A number of pictures of scenes in Japan and Korea were on exhibition and altogether it was a session of unusual interest. The society will take up the study of Africa and Europe at the next regular meeting.

WANT FLAG OVER ALL PUBLIC SCHOOLS

MOUNT VERNON.—(By The Associated Press.)—A. P. Jefferson Post of the American Legion has a resolution requesting the passage of a law requiring that the Stars and Stripes be flown over every school in Illinois during school hours and over every public building while it is open. The resolution has been sent to Department Commander Charles W. Schick of the American Legion.

Copies of the proposal also were sent to Governor Small, Speaker Shanahan of the house of representatives and Lieutenant Governor Sterling, president of the senate. The local post called attention to the fact that a similar law was once in effect in Illinois, but that it was repealed about fifteen years ago. It is the opinion of Mr. Jefferson that a more general display of the colors would do much toward inculcating upon pupils and citizens generally, that their first duty is to their country.

RUHR SITUATION RECALLS WORLD WAR

(By The Associated Press.)

ESSEN, March 2.—Ingenious tricks to camouflage wire tapping, night raids and other schemes designed to deceive "the enemy" have been resorted to by one side or the other in the Ruhr struggle, recalling the experiences of the world war.

A serious case of telegraph wire tapping was reported today with the arrest of Brigadier General Koch of the security police in Essen.

French authorities accuse him of having arranged "listening-in" apparatus connected to military lines. Such offenses are punishable with death.

Early morning "raids" by French troops to gain possession of German rolling stock are bringing excellent results in many instances. A total of 233 locomotives alone have been confiscated by the Franco-Belgian authorities.

BRADEN WOULD MAKE BARGAIN WITH COURT

Cass County Man Charged With Double Murder Wants to Exchange Plea of Guilty for Life Sentence and Escape Death Penalty.

Virginia, March 2.—O. E. Braden, Meredosia farmer, who is to be arraigned in Beardstown city court Monday morning on a grand jury indictment charging murder in the first degree, is willing to plead guilty if he can be assured that he will be given nothing more than a life sentence.

That was the word conveyed to Sheriff James R. Sligh by Mr. Braden's brother-in-law after a conference with the prisoner, who is held in the county jail at Springfield. Braden is accused of the Garm-Lowe murder.

Attorney W. H. Dieterich, of Beardstown, counsel for the Garm interests has previously indicated that he would not consent to a sentence short of capital punishment.

WHITE HALL SCHOOL
NEARING COMPLETION

Summary of Weather and Crop Conditions is Made By R. B. Pearce, Co-operative Weather Observer.

White Hall March 1.—The February summary of weather and crop conditions at White Hall finds a continued scarcity in the water supply that is acute, according to R. B. Pearce, cooperative observer of the weather bureau. Wells, some of which have been dry for two months, show no restored supply, while there is an increasing number of wells going dry. Water Commissioner Fry reports that he will feel concern over the supply in the city reservoir if the dry period continues for two months longer, an eventuality that no one seems willing to accept as possible.

The total rainfall for the month of February was only 0.85 inches below normal. This includes two snows of half an inch each on the 12th. There were seven days with precipitation of 0.01 inch or more, eight clear, six partly cloudy and fourteen cloudy days. A thunder shower occurred on the 12th. There was no snow on the ground on the 15th nor at the close of the month.

The mean temperature has 23 degrees, 2.1 degrees below normal. The highest reading was 50 on the 1st and the lowest two below zero on the 4th. The cold period from the 14th to the 19th was without snow protection. Winter wheat took on a brownish hue, but there was no damage of a permanent character. The fruit outlook remains favorable.

OBITUARY.

Paul Leonard Whitley son of Alexander and Little E. Whitley, was born July 10, 1903, died February 27, 1923. He received his education at the public schools and was employed at the time of his death at the Capps woollen mills where he had been employed for the past two years.

In his early life he united with the Centenerian Methodist church in which he has been a faithful worker ever since. He belonged to the Modern Woodman camp, N. L. 912.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his mother, his father and infant brother preceding him in death, passing away just five years ago, having died on February 27, also.

His young companions will feel his loss keenly. The deceased was a member and worthy advisor of Camp 912 M. W. A. All the officers and general members attended the funeral.

Fitting away in the springtime of life.

Paul folded his hands and bade farewell;
Before the heat of the noonday came;
Before the shadow of evening fell.

Calmly and peacefully took his flight—
Took his flight to his Heavenly home.

God needed one more in his Heavenly choir;
Needed one more in His mansion above;
So He sent an angel to call Paul home.

And he carried him there in his arms of love.

So mother, look up, it was God who gave—
It was God who took your precious boy;
Took your son from this world of sin.

To a home of sunshine and peace and joy.

And some where we know on that unseen shore
He will watch and wait with a beckoning hand.

Until you cross that dashing tide
And anchor your bark to that Heavenly land.

Market Report

OFFERINGS ABSORBED IN STOCK MARKET

Day's total sales 1,322,000 shares.
Twenty industrials averaged 104.55; net gain .42.
High 1923, 104.65; low 94.96.
Twenty railroads averaged 89.66; net gain .29.
High 1923, 90.43; low 84.55.
Total bond sales, par value, $12,099,000.

NEW YORK, March 2.—To-day's stock market displayed remarkable absorptive powers, industrial averages again soaring to the highest level since the spring of 1920 despite large and intermittent profit-taking. Pool operations continued to furnish the impetus for the advance but there were indications of an enlarged public demand attracted by the rising tendency of commodity prices rumors of extra increased dividends and the higher earnings reported by companies in virtually all branches of trade and industry.

Revival of interest in the steel shares featured the stock market, Bethlehem B leading that group by touching 70 1/2 for a net gain of more than three points.

United States Steel common also was heavily bought duplicating the year's high of 108 1/2 and closing slightly below that figure for a net gain of 18 points.

Some exceptional gains were recorded in the express and motor accessory groups, Adams Express rising 6 1/2 points; Wells-Fargo 4 1/2 and Stewart-Warner 5 1/2, all at the year's best prices.

Call money opened at five percent and advanced to 5 1/2 percent in the last hour. Time money was moderately active with funds for the longer maturities available at 5 1/2 percent. Out of town banks are the principal takers of commercial paper the ruling rate for which is five percent.

Trading in foreign exchanges was dull with most of the principal rates holding steady. Demand sterling was quoted around $4 7/8 and French francs between 6.95 and 6.98 cents.

All the United States government issues with the exception of Liberty 3 1/2 which dropped 8 cents on $100 and the Victory 4 1/2 which were unchanged showed gains of 2 to 20 cents.

Chicago Cash Grain
Chicago, March 2.—Wheat in the cash market today was heavy with premiums and discounts unchanged on all but red grades which were nominally 1 to 2c easier. Cash sales here were 20,000 bushels. The seaboard reported 150,000 to 200,000 bushels taken for Europe.

Corn closed 1 1/2c better in price. Trading basis was unchanged to 3c easier on off grades. Cash sales here were 135,000 bushels. The seaboard estimated 200,000 to 300,000 bushels worked for export.

Oats finished 1/2c better with the trading basis 1/2c higher on No. 3 white. Cash sales here were 60,000 bushels.

WHEAT SHOWED A DOWNWARD TENDENCY

CHICAGO, March 2.—Wheat showed a downward tendency in price most of the time today, influenced to a considerable extent by a bearish opinion from the president of one of the largest grain companies here. The market closed unsettled at 1 1/2c net decline with May $1.18 1/2 and July $1.15 1/2. Corn lost 1/4c to 1 1/2c on finished unchanged to 3/4c and provisions up 2 to 1 1/2c.

At first, the wheat market showed a disposition to advance owing to predictions of a sudden cold wave that might have an adverse effect on winter crops the weather of late having been unseasonably warm. Early strength in the corn market tended also to lift wheat values and so too did reports of dust storms in Nebraska and of continued dry weather southwest.

DUN'S COMMENT ON MARKET CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, March 2.—Dun's tomorrow will say:

"pandemic demand and rising prices have been familiar phases in different branches of enterprise. Two months of the new year have brought a decided extension of the business recovery and results for the first quarter in many cases will be more favorable than had been expected."

"Records of production in certain basic industries show that operations are steadily approaching closer to capacity with steel plants more generally engaged at a 90 per cent rate and reports are heard more frequently of overtime running of mills and factories."

"Such a situation obviously would not exist if distributors were not covering their requirements freely."

"Weekly bank clearings $7,764,323,000."

C. OF C. COMMITTEE INSPECTS NEW MINE

Industrial Group Are Guests of H. E. Frye at Coal Mine South of City. New Enterprise Has Elements of Growth, Owner Thinks.

The Industrial Committee of the Chamber of Commerce paid a visit Friday afternoon to the new mine being operated south of the city by H. E. Frye. Those who took the trip were T. A. Chapin, chairman; E. H. Gray, H. E. Wheeler, Marcus Hulet and H. C. Welch.

The committee visited the mine on invitation of Mr. Frye, who wanted the members to investigate the project. The visitors descended into the mine, which consists of a sixty-five foot shaft and several rooms or entries. The vein of coal which is being uncovered at this depth is about twenty-four inches thick, but Mr. Frye hopes to reach a larger vein as he pushes his entries southward and eastward. He expects to reach the rooms of an abandoned mine in these directions.

Eight people are at present employed at the mine, and the owner hopes to increase the force as soon as possible. He has already invested about $8,000 in the enterprise. About twelve tons of coal are being mined daily.

The industrial committee, after looking over the mine and the equipment, was unanimous in its opinion that the new industry should receive encouragement.

COMMERCIAL BODY TO CONSIDER NEW PLAN

Entire Membership of Retail Division Invited to Meeting Monday, to Talk Trade Extension. May Give Prizes to Boys.

Letters were sent out Friday to the 225 members of the Commercial Division of the Chamber of Commerce, inviting them to meet with the executive board of the division on next Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock. It is the purpose of the gathering to consider a new project for trade extension in Jacksonville and surrounding territory.

The executive board has a plan by which one boy in every township in the Jacksonville trade area would receive a portable hog house and pen and a pure bred pig as a gift from the merchants. The houses and pens are built by the Portable Hog Fencing Co., one of the latest industries to locate in the city.

Details of the plan have not been made public, but the same will be explained to the members of the division at the meeting Monday morning. At this time the plan will be discussed and approved or rejected by the membership.

LIQUOR CASES HAVE OFFICERS' ATTENTION

Officers from the city police department made a raid on the residence of Levi Postley on Rockwell street after information had been filed in the county court by State's Attorney Robinson. A large jug containing white mule was secured as evidence. There have been numerous complaints filed with reference to the Postley residence.

Search warrants were also issued for the residence of Mrs. Bessie Davenport on Broadway alley and Victor Justice on North Main street. No evidence of liquor sales was secured at either place.

Men from the sheriff's office Friday searched the residence of Charles DeFrates on King street for evidences of liquor manufacture. They found only empty bottles and jugs.

Thursday night DeFrates was arrested by Capt. Elliott and Officer Williams of the city police force while near the high school building. DeFrates had a number of bottles of wine in his possession and evidently purposed to sell the liquor to customers who were to appear from the high school. The liquor was confiscated and information has been filed against DeFrates by State's Attorney Robinson charging him with "retention of liquor."

The defendant has been in the county court before to answer a charge of violating the liquor laws.

G. C. GUTHRIE DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Well Known Jacksonville Business Man Passed Away Friday Night—Funeral Tuesday.

Death came at 7 o'clock Friday night to George C. Guthrie, one of the best known citizens of Jacksonville. Mr. Guthrie had been ill for a period of months, as he suffered a stroke of paralysis last August. There was a time of improvement and friends and relatives were for months hopeful that he would recover. But more recently a change came for the worse and he failed rapidly, notwithstanding that everything was done for him that love and skill could suggest. Death occurred at the residence, 116 Park street.

Mr. Guthrie was born in Zanesville, Ohio, in May 1853. His parents, George N. and Sarah Ann McFarland Guthrie, originally lived in Concord, N. H., and came from New England stock. As a young man the deceased came to Jacksonville and in 1877 was married to Miss Lottie Stevenson whose death occurred in 1912. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie lived in Zanesville and later in Fredonia, N. Y. Mr. Guthrie being in business in both of these cities.

In 1899 he came to Jacksonville and the following year became a member of the well known firm of Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie. In business as was true in private life, Mr. Guthrie evidenced a fine and gentle spirit. His period of illness was attended by some suffering and a business man who knew him intimately recently said: "It is indeed hard to understand why a man who has lived such a consistent Christian life and has treated all with such unfeigned gentleness, should meet with weeks of suffering. I have known Mr. Guthrie intimately for years. I have never seen him give way to anger and even under the most trying circumstances he has maintained that characteristic calmness of spirit. He never was critical and always took the most charitable view of people and conditions."

Mr. Guthrie was of retiring disposition, a quiet man of few words. As men and women came to know him with passing years they appreciated his strength of character and valued his friendship greatly.

In Westminster church the deceased was an active worker and for almost twenty years had been continuously either Sunday school superintendent or member of the session.

Referring to the deceased last night Dr. Smith, pastor of Westminster church, said: "His loss will be deeply felt in Westminster not because he was a talker but because he matched his creed with his deeds. Fifty-two weeks in the year, no pastor could have a more loyal supporter, and to my mind the phrase, 'He was a doer of the Word,' is especially applicable."

In June, 1913, Mr. Guthrie was married to Miss Ida C. Braun, who survives him together with two sisters, Mrs. S. B. Bootes, of Alhambra, Cal., and Mrs. J. S. Blanchard of Concord, N. H. There are also three nieces and nephews.

Hosts of friends will be saddened by the news of Mr. Guthrie's death for they had hoped that the tireless care given him would be rewarded by recovery.

The funeral services will be held at Westminster church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TWO WABASH WRECKS OCCUR IN 24 HOURS

Freight Cars Derailed at North East Street Crossing—Much Feed Lost in Wreck at Bates

The second wreck in twenty-four hours occurred about 8 o'clock Friday evening on the Wabash railroad east of the junction in this city. Three freight cars attached to an extra westbound freight train, went into the ditch blocking the C. & A. and Burlington crossings at the junction tower.

The wrecker, which was at Bates clearing up the first wreck, was given an emergency call, and rushed to the scene. The cars had been thrown off the tracks and into the roadway of East street. A fallen brake rod on one of the cars caused the wreck last night. No one was injured, and as all the derailed cars were empty, no goods in transit were damaged.

In the wreck which occurred Thursday night at Bates, things were not as pleasant. Several carloads of shorts and other feeds were dumped into the ditch, and feed of all sorts was scattered along the right of way for several hundred yards. Ten cars, most of which were loaded, were demolished, and several hundred feet of track were torn up. Trains over the Wabash had to be detoured by other routes during the day Friday.

TEACHERS PLANNING FOR STATE MEET

Friday An Institute Date and Teachers Who Act and Will Receive Proper Credit—Program Promises Good Features.

Indications are that a great many Morgan county teachers, those from the Jacksonville schools and from the schools of the towns and the country, districts, will attend sessions of the fourth annual meeting of the south central division of the Illinois State Teachers association, which will be held in Springfield next Friday and Saturday.

H. H. Vascincello, county superintendent of schools, has sent a letter to each teacher in the county calling attention to the dates of his meeting and the program which will be presented.

Mr. Vascincello says that Friday, March 9, has been declared an institute day under section 183 of the school law, which provides that the time spent at such meetings is considered the same as time taught for all teachers who attend.

The letter also mentions that teachers who wish to may register in advance by sending the regular registration fee, together with the name and correct address.
